

1

We take turns playing.
In turn, pick a card
and read it aloud

2

Comrade, you have been chosen to join the delegation that will accompany our beloved Leader to a diplomatic summit
that could change the course of history.

3

During this summit,
our beloved Leader
will take the decisions that will lead our Union on the road to peace or drive it into the throes of war. He will need all our support and a united delegation, ready to do anything to defend the interests of the Party.

4

For the Party! For our beloved Leader!

5

When the Instruction Cards are completed,
we continue in turn
with the Question Cards. Read each card aloud and answer the question asked.

6

Other players can ask you questions or make suggestions.
But they can't answer
for you and it's up to you to decide whether or not to take them into account

7

Map X is located below the Next & Back buttons.

8

If there is a card, or an answer, that you do not want to include in the story, touch the X card. This content is removed from the game

9

Your turn, you can pass. "Give" your card to the next player and say, "I'd like to hear your answer to that question."

10

A Question card can thus be passed from player to player until it is cancelled by card X.

11

Continue to answer, pass or use card X
until the Final Card""Betrayal! Our beloved Leader is the victim of an assassination attempt.
Did you help organize the plot?" be fired.

12

Each player answers
the question "Did you help organize the plot?" in turn. Then the game is over

The player who wishes to do so can draw the first Question Card

Rumours are circulating within the Party about your relationship with the Leader. What do they say?

You surprised the Leader while he was enjoying the pleasures of a service/well produced by our capitalist enemy. He didn't see you. What was he doing? Have you told anyone about this?

To get the position you hold, the leader asked you to sacrifice something or someone. Specifies who or what it is? What happened to this good/person?

Someone around the table could succeed our beloved Leader if an unfortunate accident were to occur. Who is it? Who is it? What do you think of this person?

You do not always agree with the decisions made by our beloved Leader. This is wrong. Which decision(s) do you question? Have you confessed your doubts to anyone?

Thanks to our beloved Leader, you benefit from a privileged position. What advantages could you lose if someone else were to take over the leadership of the Party?

You were approached by agents of an enemy capitalist power. What did they want with you? What did they offer you? Did you accept?

Enemy propaganda depicts our beloved Leader as a cruel despot. Yet you know that he is capable of showing kindness. What makes you think that?

You fought alongside our beloved Leader. How did he behave in the face of danger?

You knew our beloved Leader when he was still a simple militant fighting for the revolutionary cause. What was he like then? Has it changed since then?

Is our beloved Leader faithful to his loved ones or has he betrayed some of them?

Our beloved Leader sent a relative of yours to a forced labour camp. Was he right to do so in your opinion?

You are ready to betray, even kill, one of your loved ones if our beloved Leader asks you to. Who would that person be?

You're hiding a secret that compromises all Party members. What is it? What is it? How would the beloved leader react if he found out? Are you really sure he doesn't know about this?

Do you think there are traitors among your delegation? If so, who do you suspect and why?

The position of Leader was contested within the Party. Who could have taken the place of our beloved Leader? Would he have made a better Leader?

A member of the delegation is hiding a secret that could be useful to you if you had to act against him. What is this secret? Have you told anyone or informed our beloved Leader about this?

Our beloved Leader has put in place a measure that makes people grind their teeth within the Party even if no one dares to say anything. Yet you actively support this measure. What is it? What is it? Is the fervour with which you support her sincere?

You would be willing to support one of the delegation's comrades if the position of Leader were to be filled. Who is this comrade?

In the past, you have already heard of a plot against our beloved Leader. What was your reaction then? If you had to do it all over again, would you do it again?

The position of Leader is not always enviable. What would make you turn down this position?

Sometimes you feel sorry for our beloved Leader. Why? Why?

You weren't always a member of the Party. Before, you even defended certain ideas totally in opposition to current official doctrine. What were these ideas? Do you still believe in it today?

A past event brought you and another member of the delegation closer together. You are like brothers, or at least you won't get knives in your back (although...). Who is this person? What brought you together?

You owe the Leader a debt of gratitude. What is it? What is it?

It is common knowledge, our beloved Leader has lost a person who was very dear to him. But no one knows why and rumours are spreading. What are these rumors? You know the truth. What is it and how did you learn it?

Our beloved Leader suffers from an illness, even if he hides it from everyone. What is this disease? How did you find out about it?

Do you regret any of the actions that got you to where you are today

If our beloved Leader were to suffer a coup d'état or an early death, what evidence would you have to destroy yourself to enter into the good graces of his successor?

Our beloved Leader has always had the soul of a leader of men. What is your oldest memory of his leadership?

You made a secret pact with another member of the delegation. Who is this person? What is your pact?

What is your plan to survive the fall of the regime in the event of a counter-revolution?

You have a sulphurous reputation within the Party. Why? Why?

Our beloved Leader has already sent you to a forced labour camp to give you a month of revolutionary re-education. Why? Why? What lesson did you learn?

You have already claimed something from our beloved Leader many times, but he has always refused you. What is it about?

What do you expect to gain from your relationship with our beloved Leader?

Who do you prefer: the Party or our beloved Leader?

Our beloved Leader has already hesitated between two measures: one jeopardizing your privileges and the other jeopardizing the lives of hundreds or even thousands of people. What did you advise him to do?

You've already been fooled by an enemy spy. What information did you reveal to him? What were the consequences?

You and our beloved Leader have discovered a common passion, which you indulge from time to time, a little secretly. What is it? What is it?

Our beloved Leader has a sense of humour. You're always laughing at his jokes. Is that sincere on your part?

The Revolution liberated the oppressed people and allowed the emancipation of the Man of tomorrow. Nevertheless, there is one thing you regret about the old regime. What is it? What is it?

Our beloved Leader has entrusted you with part of his plan to achieve his goals during the diplomatic summit. What is it about?

Our beloved Leader has already invited you to his country house, where he sometimes takes a little rest with his family and those who have his trust. What impressed you during your time there?

Some Party officials do not always agree with our beloved Leader. Are they right? Are you going to report them?

A short stay in a labour camp has never hurt anyone and it puts the ideas back in place. Is that really a quote from our beloved Leader? Do you agree with this statement?

A little purge from time to time is good for the Party. Is that really a quote from our beloved Leader? Do you agree with this statement?

Betrayal! Our beloved Leader is the victim of an assassination attempt. Did you help organize the plot?